An Afternoon to Remember is dedicated to educating others in the art of taking tea. Our mission is to provide a unique upscale experience where customers are pampered and can relax, socialize and celebrate special occasions while enjoying excellent teas and delectable treats. Tea rooms entice you to sit leisurely, and this is the main goal and purpose of our tea room making your experience here truly...

”An Afternoon to Remember.”

Forward

Every year I publish a cookbook with new recipes. I could never have done this without the help of my staff. Everyone is so committed to our tea room. They bring in ideas, add constructive criticism and treat my business as if it is their own. I am so proud of them! From creating the recipes, to perfecting them, to editing, and designing the cookbook, I want to thank them all for their hard work! I would also like to thank my wonderful customers. They often give us inspiration for new recipes.

This cookbook is the combination of everyone's efforts – Carla Sherman, Alejandra Sanchez, Connie Johnson, Dena Macklin, Patti Schmicking, Fran Swart and a dear customer, Arnelle Sanford. However, without Carla, Alejandra, Connie and Dena, this cookbook would have never been written. They are the ones who actually experiment and create these delicious recipes day after day. Thank you all so much!

Last but not least, is my wonderful husband, Pat. He puts up with all of my late nights, long weekends and whining. He is the reason this book ever gets put together. Without my computer genius, I would be lost. Thank you sweetie! Pat has worked extremely hard on this one as it is published by our new company, ATR Publishing. After 3 years of self-publishing our cookbooks with a local printer, I was encouraged by eWomen Publishing Network to branch out and actually have it really "published" So this is it! Our first cookbook published under our own company. We're so proud!

I hope you enjoy the recipes in this cookbook and that they inspire you to create your own recipes. Happy cooking!
